APMPUK 2012 CONFERENCE

We are delighted to announce two very special keynote speakers – Ruby Wax

After three decades working on stage, television and radio, Ruby Wax has recently changed direction.

She qualified in Psychotherapy and studied in Neuroscience and now runs management workshops for business leaders enabling them to find a deeper and more direct level of communication with their clients and colleagues. Her workshops combine humour with scientific and theoretical learning and normally involve practical exercises. Ruby's participants leave with a set of tools helping them create a climate of positivity, resulting in more effective teams, so directly impacting their organisation.

David Magliano - MBE

David played a lead role in two high-profile bids of recent times: as Director of Commercial and Marketing at England 2018, and as Director of Marketing at London 2012.

In both cases David's responsibilities included devising the positioning strategy, designing the technical submissions, creating the marketing materials and producing the large-scale events associated with presenting the bid to the electorate.

Richard Newman

Richard Newman has worked with advanced communication skills since 1995, training over 15,000 people from 45 countries. Last year his team helped their clients win additional contracts worth over £1.6 billion.

He will boost your success in business, with advanced communication training. Clients include the McLaren Formula 1 Team, FTSE 100 Companies such as Barclays, IBM and BT, the UK Parliament and international celebrities.
